

Call for Work
Artists at the Atlantic

The Lynn Museum and LynnArts invite all plein air artists to participate in our fall Artists at the Atlantic exhibit, auction and programs. Inspired by the natural beauty of the North Shore, our series begins with a day of plein air art-making on Saturday, September 20, 2014 from 10-4 pm. The three locations for this event are Red Rock Park, Lynn; Fisherman's Beach, Swampscott and Chandler Hovey Park, Marblehead. Subject matter is not limited to traditional maritime scenes and artists are invited to work in all media.

Plein air work created on September 20th, along with other juried artwork and a selection of historical Lynn Beach Painters scenes, will be included in the Artists at the Atlantic exhibit opening at the Lynn Museum on Wednesday, October 8. The jury will consider including multiple artworks by individual artists in the exhibit if space is available. There is no entry fee to submit work for this exhibit. There will be a special opening reception on Thursday, October 9 from 4-6 pm. Finally, on Saturday, November 15, art from the exhibit will be included in an auction to benefit the Lynn Museum and LynnArts. The auction is an important fundraiser for both organizations to support our educational programs. Artists are given the option to make a tax-deductible donation of 100% of proceeds from the sale of their work, or to share a percentage of the profits (see below for details).
